

EMPLOYER VIRTUAL WORKSHOP SERIES

EMPLOYEES WITH DISABILITIES

ADDRESSING MISCONCEPTIONS AND CELEBRATING THEIR WORK

Oct. 25, 2023 | 1:00-2:30 PM

October is National Disability Employment Awareness Month. It also marks the 50th anniversary of the passage of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

The U.S. Department of Labor and its Office of Disability Employment Policy is recognizing these events by continuing to advance access and equity in job placement success for those with a recognized disability.

Join us for a free, virtual workshop that celebrates the contributions of disabled workers and showcases the supportive, inclusive policies and practices in place that benefit employees and employers alike. The goal is to recognize the importance of ensuring people with disabilities have equal opportunity to prepare for and succeed on the job.

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHTS:

- Review of the legal definition of disability
- Challenge assumptions and increase one's knowledge related to disabilities
- Increase one's understanding of the Americans with Disabilities Act and its impact on your organization

DID YOU KNOW?

According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 21.3% of U.S. citizens with a disability were employed in 2022.
